A négociant by trade, they essentially control the flow of wine from some of the most sought-after and hallowed estates to their adoring collectors across the globe. Duclot has access to both properties and, more importantly, their cellars of which others can merely dream, allowing them the ability to compose their now-famous Collection Cases of the most exclusive and in-demand First Growths in the region.

Our “Collection Miroir” is a very limited edition of two sister cases, one complementing the other, one reflecting the other. The first one would be named “Millésimes Secrets” – Secret Vintages and the other one would be “Millésimes Historiques” – Historical Vintages. The consistency of the Grand Vin of Léoville Las Cases is such that many vintages would have deserved to be included in this case. So it was decided to create two cases instead of one.

A refined case comprising four of the LVMH group’s illustrious estates, all spotlighting a legendary vintage

This 2016 Vins d’Exception case are numbered “X300“ and includes:

1 bottle of Clos des Lambrays 2016 750ml
During this vintage, a severe frost hit Burgundian estates in April however, the vineyard of the Clos des Lambrays was spared but suffered from a significant mildew pressure. The mild conditions during the summer favoured the optimal ripening of the grapes which, despite low yields, revealed a rare quality and a rich expression. A fine vintage!

1 bottle of Château d’Yquem 2016
The late budbreak and flowering period were offset by an exceptionally hot and dry summer. These conditions did not cause water stress thanks to the water reserves. This elegant Château d’Yquem 2016 reveals a complex nose as well as a lively, aerial and beautifully fresh palate.

1 bottle of Château Cheval Blanc 2016
Although the year 2016 was marked by dry weather conditions, a fine end-of-season enabled the entire vineyard to reach optimal ripeness. A fruity, floral and spicy nose precedes a full and well-balanced palate whose powerful and refined tannins blend with a refreshing acidity.

1 bottle of Colgin Cellars IX Estate 2016
Subsequent to a succession of dry years in Napa Valley, the wet conditions throughout winter, beneficial to both the vineyard and the soils, precede a very regular growing season. Stemming from vines planted in volcanic, rocky, iron-rich soils, this 2016 Colgin Cellars IX Estate blends soft, elegant tannins with a fresh, complex, structured palate.

Chateau Pichon Comtesse de Lalande is an all-time favourite! The consensus is that the wine is sensual, elegant and polished. What's not to love? The fact is, there are only two Second Growths in Pauillac (Pichon Comtesse de Lalande being one), and they are just next in rank to Lafite-Rothschild, Mouton-Rothschild and Latour.

If the 1981 vintage in Bordeaux may not be the most famous, the Grand Vin de Léoville Las Cases 1981 proves to what extent the terroir plays a preponderant role. With a magnificent deep ruby color, it offers a seductive and delicate bouquet of sweet spices, blond tobacco, cedar and black berries. Full bodied and elegant, it conveys on the palace a perfect maturity enhanced by a rich scope of flavors marrying the tangy sweetness of ripe berries and refined warm touches of cocoa nibs and Havana cigar. A wine still showing great precision and freshness, suave complexity, classic and elegant.

96/100 (Vinous - Antonio Galloni, 2021)
( ... ). The 2001 Léoville Las Cases is simply stunning. ( ... ). And make no mistake about it, a twenty yearold Las Cases is still a youngster. ( ... ). The 2001 is simply magnificent upon opening. A rush of generous inky blackberry jam, spice, graphite and leather conveys superb textural intensity. Time in the glass helps the aromatics come alive. Shockingly rich and voluptuous, the 2001 is also wonderfully open today. ( ... ). Even so, the 2001 is ultimately a mid-weight Las Cases, with plenty of opulent fruit, ( ... ). Readers lucky enough to own the 2001 are in for a real treat. This is an especially fine boccie, perhaps the finest I have come across. ( ... ). I absolutely loved it.

95/100 James Suckling, 2021)
A very typical Las Cases with a Pauillac note, even though it's Sc.-Julien. Lead pencil, dried herb, currant and black olive. Medium-to full-bodied, firm and creamy with a long finish. It's very persistent. Pretty austerity. ( ... ). Drink or hold.

2011

94/100 (Decanter - Jane Anson, 2021)
(Concentrated black fruits and sappy power. Delicious but a hard taskmaster: this is for those who love to be whipped by their wines. Tannins are still very much present, binding in the exoticism, black pepper, charcoal and dried herbs. ( ... ) The second-hottest vintage since 2000 ( ... ). Drink 2021-2044.

1989

96/100 (Wine Spectator, 2009) Very ripe, with raisin and dried fruits on the nose. You can smell the sun-dried grapes. Full-bodied, delivering firm tannins and a very fresh palate. Long and flavorful, offering currant, berries and all sorts of dark fruits, but turns lightly earthy and floral. This is a thoroughly complex wine. Just starting to really open into the mature 20-year-old wine it is, but such a great life ahead of it. Muscular.

90/100 (Robert Parker, 2003) Dark ruby (a far less saturated color than the 1990, for example), this wine offers up a somewhat internationally styled nose of new oak and ripe black currant fruit, with a hint of mineral and graphite. This wine will continue to improve for at least another 15 or more years, and while it is an outstanding wine, it is hardly a profound example of Leoville Las Cases.

1999

94/100 (Wine Spectator) This is so fresh still, just a baby. Blackberry, mineral, floral and blueberry aromas follow through to a full body, with focused, subtle fruit and a racy, refined and reserved tannin structure. This really needs time. Cuddled up in a ball of tannins.

91/100 (Robert Parker) Its extraordinary purity and overall harmony give it a character all its own. This excellent Las Cases will be at its finest between 2006-2022.

92/100 (Vinous - Stephen Tanzer) Full ruby-red. Captivating nose of roasted currant, cedar and minerals, with a floral lift; quite fresh for the year. Sweet, supple, dense and full, with no dip in the middle. This is impressively chewy and concentrated for a ’99. Finishes long and flavorful, with sweet, building tannins.

2009

98+/100 (Robert Parker) The 2009 Leoville Las Cases may be the most open-knit and forward Las Cases I have tasted to date. It boasts an inky/purple color, monumental concentration and lots of sweet, jammy black currant, black cherry and kirsch fruit intermixed with crushed rock and mineral notes. ( ... ) A massive wine with exceptional precision, unbelievable purity and aging potential of 40-50 years. ( ... ). This is a brilliant, full-throttle Sr.-Julien.

96/100 (Decanter - Jane Anson) This keeps on giving, with notes of grilled almonds and truffles. It’s still young, although with a carafe and a good plate of food you could open it now. The complexity is amazing; the charcoal, the depth of flavour, the yielding of the tannins. Overall, very impressive. Drinking Window 2018 - 2048.

18,5/20 (Bettane & Desseauve) Vin impressionnant de majeste et de tension de texture, mais sans lourdeur. Un grand classique, incontestablement.
Château Lagrange: La Collection Remarquable (Case of 6)

For 6 of these vintages, Château Lagrange offers the singular experience of an ageing in exceptional barrels, made of remarkable three-hundred-year-old oaks.

These historic trees grew in unique plots managed sustainably by the ONF, the National Forestry Office. These totally unique barrels are numbered and marked with the name of the original oak tree, symbol of three centuries of history. The extremely fine grain of the oak lends beautifully silky tannins to the wine and reinforces the ageing potential. On tasting, all the vintages of this Collection offer great finesse and remarkable purity in the palate. The fruit is preserved in these high definition wines: each robe is intense, and the structure announces they are made to last over time.

Château Cos d’Estournel
TRESOR DU MAHARADJAH Case
(Case of 6)

With six legendary wines from Cos d’Estournel, this gift set represents a unique showcase for Michel Reybier’s prestigious estate.

1982
The highly complex 1982 vintage offers the consummate elegance of a very great Cos d’Estournel. The year enjoys a legendary status in the Bordeaux area, both for its abundant harvest and for the exceptional quality of the wines it produced.

1989
The year saw the earliest harvest in the whole of the last century, and the emblematic 1989 vintage, with its fleshy structure, is a perfect embodiment of the Cos d’Estournel style. Complex aromas of spices and ripe fruit, combined with well-integrated tannins, a velvety texture on the palate and superb persistence, make this a quite exceptional vintage.

2003
This vintage of remarkable freshness born of an exceptionally hot year, reveals flamboyant aromas of liquorice and black fruit. The precise and elegant finish confirms its stature as a remarkable wine for this exceedingly great year.

2005
In a year of exceptionally fine weather, the 2005 vintage fulfills the potential offered by the year’s grapes. Deep purple in colour, it reveals astonishing aromas of spices and chocolate, with a wonderful expression of fruit. The deep, rich structure of this very great Cos d’Estournel offers outstanding aging potential.

2009
A nose marked by dark fruit, a stylish and full palate and a very dense yet fine-grained tannic structure make the 2009 vintage a flamboyant wine. At once powerful and velvety smooth, generous and fresh, this great and unique Cos d’Estournel is an extraordinary wine.

2010
With its deep, intense, almost blue-black colour, the 2010 vintage is generous on the nose and the palate. Both precise and fresh with a serious and full-bodied tannic structure, this is a dazzling wine. Powerful and elegant, it embodies the qualities of a very great Cos d’Estournel to perfection, and requires patience if its full complexity is to be enjoyed.

Château Pichon Baron Black Case (Case of 3)
2015 | 2016 | 2018

2015
Deep garnet red. The nose is expressive and delicate, offering a wonderfully aromatic range of summer berries, black cherries and blueberries, very lightly underpinned by a toasted spiciness. The attack is mellow and the palate, like the nose, is precise and refined. Well-integrated woodiness and delicate, velvety tannins carried by ripe and generous fruit. The finish is juicy and precise. There is overall opulence and denseness from start to finish. This wine is harmonious, with an impressive balance between the fruit and the delicate tannins.

2016
Garnet red colour. The nose reveals aromas of red and dark fruit such as blueberry, black cherry and blackcurrant, followed by very lightly toasted notes with a hint of vanilla and spices. The fleshy, powerful attack is balanced by richness and a certain fullness. The tannins are silky, opulent, and lengthy, with some crispness. The finish is precise. Altogether it is dominated by the typicity of the grapes and by tension, and is dense and full-bodied.

2018
Dark garnet colour. The precise and delicate nose offers notes of fresh fruit, black berries and spices. The attack is mellow, generous, rounded and juicy, developing powerful, well-blended tannins. The body is structured with silky, racy tannins. The flavour is carried by the structure, which preserves the mid-palate. The finish is tasty, full, fleshy, and harmonious. The richness is perfectly integrated and the style is highly characteristic, built to last through the decades, while retaining elegance and distinction.

The concentrated, full-bodied palate is jam-packed with bright, crunchy black, blue and red fruits. Bodega Numanthia launches, for the first time since its foundation, the exclusive Termanthia Collection Library casket, a selection of three well-chosen vintages of its most special wine: Termanthia.

This is the first time that the winery has taken from its private reserve vintages that are no longer for sale to bring them together in a single, ultra-limited edition release.

The Termanthia style is the purest expression of the Toro red grape variety, with all the strength of the fruit, its intensity, its corpulence and a balanced mixture of elegance and complexity. In each glass there is more than a century of history, that of the vines that survived the passage of phylloxera.

For this exclusive selection, the vintages of 2006, 2010 and 2012 have been chosen, three wines that contain the different expressions of their vintages. Termanthia 2006 is a surprising, expressive, complex and long-lived red. Termanthia 2010 is one of the most special wines in the history of Numanthia. And finally, Termanthia 2012 is silky and very balanced.

Termanthia Collection Library contains 3 bottles, including:

- Termanthia 2006 (WA93|WS95|AG94)
- Termanthia 2010 (WA93|WS95|JS93)
- Termanthia 2012 (WA94|WS95|JS93|AG94)
